The One

Zion Resistance   (January 1999 → Ongoing)

As The One, I fought against the Matrix system, leading a revolution against the machines. I mastered multiple programming languages and acquired exceptional combat skills in various simulated environments.

Hacker

Red Pill Hackers   (1995 → 1999)

As a skilled hacker, I uncovered the truth about the Matrix, a simulated reality that enslaved humanity. I used my programming knowledge to manipulate the Matrix and evade the agents.

Software Developer

Metacortex   (1992 → 1995)

Before discovering the truth, I worked as a software developer in a mundane office job. Little did I know that my skills would become vital in the fight against the machines.
